

Executive Summary

2. Are more students enrolling?
3. Are more students advancing through the system?

The staff recommends that the council approve a revised definition for the Key Indicators six-year graduation rate. (For details, see page 55.)

There are several minor changes to the definition of the six-year graduation rate. These changes will align this definition with national standards.

The staff recommends that the council approve the 2003-2005 tuition reciprocity agreements between Kentucky and Ohio. (For details, see page 57.)

The tuition reciprocity agreements, developed by representatives from the participating institutions, will be effective beginning July 1, 2003. The agreements facilitate access to convenient and more affordable educational opportunities for students in both Kentucky and Ohio.
